

COURAGE TO CONNECT, DARE TO DIALOGUE

THE PLEDGE

As a gesture toward proactive community building and in memory of the tragedy at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon,
I pledge the following:

- I will not jump to conclusions.
- I will listen to what others have to say.
- I will move beyond tolerance so that I may fully embrace those who are different from me.
- I will be an ally to those who need one.
- I will speak out against injustice and unfairness.
- I will be a mediator of conflict.
- I will build bridges between people.
- I will spread a message of peace wherever I go.
- I will recognize the fundamental oneness of humanity.

BY WEARING THIS RIBBON, I AM TELLING THE WORLD THAT I HAVE TAKEN THE PLEDGE.

The Courage to Connect, Dare to Dialogue project comes as a response to the World Trade Center and Pentagon tragedy facilitated by the Office of Human Relations Programs with support from numerous, campus-wide entities.
