

FACULTY RESEARCH FORUM 2003

“MAKING AN IMPACT”

April 8, 2003
12:30-3:15 p.m.
Special Events Room
6th Floor McKeldin Library

This year's Faculty Diversity Research Forum will showcase the work of the past years' award recipients listed below. These faculty awardees will describe many exciting and effective ways to integrate diversity elements into courses, promote diversity in varied student learning environments, and help students live more successfully in a complex multicultural world.

PANEL ONE

12:30-1:45 p.m.

Gay Gullickson
(Teaching About Americans with Disabilities)

Ana Patricia Rodriguez with
Evelyn Canabal-Torres and Manuel Lacorte
(Latina Bilingualisms and Biculturalisms)

Marla McIntosh
(What Happened to the Women who Studied Agricultural Science?)

PANEL TWO

2:00-3:15 p.m.

Sharon Fries-Britt
(In Black & White: The Experience of High Achieving Honors Students)

Sharon Desmond
(Seat Pleasant: UMD Health Partnerships)

Seung-kyung Kim
(Korean American Women in the Workforce)

MODERATORS

Elaine Anderson (Family Studies)
Maurine Beasley (Philip Merrill College of Journalism)

Faculty is requested to have their students attend this forum for extra credit.

Email Gloria Bouis (gb20@umail.umd.edu) or Sivagami Subbaraman (shivas@wam.umd.edu) for more information.

Co-sponsored by the Faculty Relations Committee of the Diversity Initiative, the University of Maryland Libraries' Diversity Committee and the Office of Human Relations Programs.